

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY

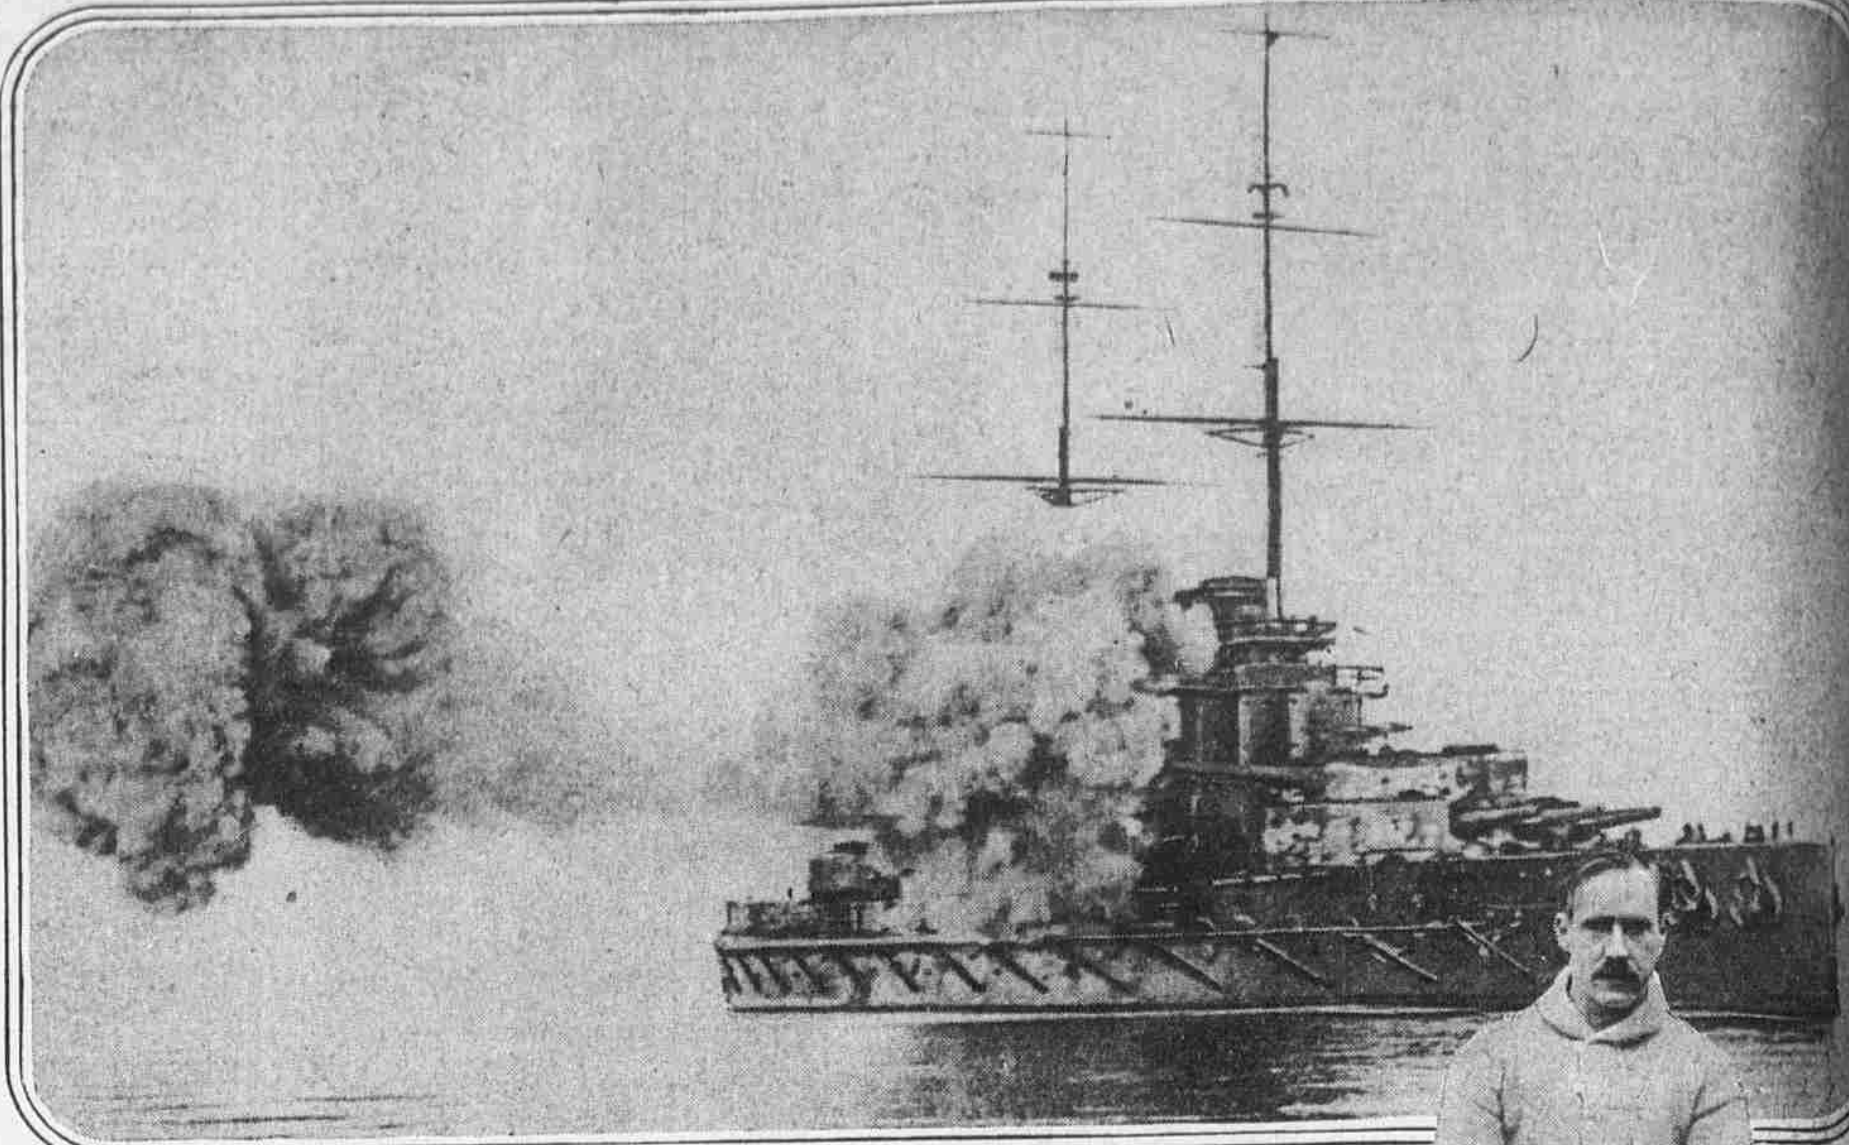

January 20, 1915

PERSONS AND PLACES THAT FIGURE IN THE DAY'S NEWS AS RECORDED BY THE PHOTOGRAPHER

ABANDONED BECAUSE OF HARD TIMES

Deserted in front of a department store in New York, Richard Heffer, 5, and James, aged 3. To the coat of the older was pinned a note, saying the parents had given them up because of hard times.

AUSTRIAN DREADNOUGHT WHICH WAS DAMAGED BY SUBMARINE

The Viribus Unitis was the first dreadnought built by Emperor Francis Joseph. She is shown delivering a broadside. In a recent raid at Pola her hull was pierced by a French torpedo. It was first reported that she had been sunk, but the Austrian Government denied this.

PLAN A JOB FOR EVERY MAN IN THE COUNTRY

From left to right, they are Commissioner Caminetti, of the Bureau of Immigration; Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Labor, and T. V. Powderly, of the Division of Information. They hope to put men in touch with jobs through the nation's 58,000 postoffices.

FOREIGN TRADE PUSHERS FOR THE UNITED STATES

Robert F. Rose and William B. Fleming are officials of the State Department whose business it is to expedite commerce. They have been kept extremely busy at it since the war began. They are little known to the public.

F. P. EARLE AT HIS FAVORITE SPORT

His misfortune is to have his name forever connected with the word "affinity." He now lives at Allenhurst, N. J.

NEW SKYSCRAPER GIVES NEW AIR TO BOSTON'S SKYLINE

This tower, which towers 300 feet in air, is that on the new Custom House, of which The Hub is very proud. Hitherto the dominating structures of the city have been the State House dome and Bunker Hill Monument.

SUN IS BRILLIANT AT SAN DIEGO EXPOSITION

This is part of one of the typical military parades seen daily on the Exposition grounds passing along the Isthmus, the amusement street. In the foreground is the Exposition's Spanish Band, followed by a squad of Exposition Balboa Guards. Behind the guards is a detachment of coast artillerymen.